

Día de Muertos Project Proposal

Dear Educators, Collaborators and Community Members,

Once again JUMP will be hosting Día de Muertos celebrations, remembrance and performances on Wednesday, November 2nd, 2022.

We are excited to invite students in the valley to display their art projects that reflect the importance of this cultural event. If you are interested in participating, we would love to involve your students.

JUMP will be showcasing a collection of projects in the visual arts such as: Día de Muertos Altars, Papel Picado, Guatemalan Kites, Sugar Skulls and more. As space is limited, we plan to include as many schools as we can. Priority will be given by date received. Please return the proposal below by September 30th, 2022 with your interest in participation and proposed project.
